

THE SYMBOLS OF OUR PRIDE

Across the globe, a tale is spun
Of symbols with pride and elation
Scents the sense of freedom, and brave,
All stand high, with symbols that we crave.

The Tricolor waves high and in a dream of tranquility
Saffron for sacrifice, White for peace and Green for fertility
The Ashoka Chakra at its center, a wheel of might,
Symbolizes 24 hours a day, with all its light.

Lotus, the national flower, a sign of beauty
And a beacon of culture, heritage and purity
The peacock's proud display, a dance of colors,
Symbolises the royalty and cultures.

The mighty roar of Bengal Tiger, a sign of strength
Where the banyan's ancient roots, and knowledge is fruits,
The National Anthem Jana-Gana-Mana, a divine entity
And the Holy Ganges, the cleansing of spirituality.

Let us cherish these symbols dear, in our hearts they'll stay
Inspiring our nation's symphony, everyday
