

LOCKDOWN INDIA VS. UNLOCK INDIA

India was acknowledged in the primitive era as a Golden Bird with plethora of precious stones, abundant raw materials and magnificent palaces was woefully handcuffed by the inhumane Britishers who became dark skinned on vibrant and evolving nation. Their domination and slavery brought suppression, depression but India, an ocean of knowledge and spirituality secured liberation with flying colours after years of oppression. Flowers of the country blossomed and reached the steps of success.

Out of the blue, a pandemic has hit the country. COVID- 19 a huge stressor shaking our legs, triggering our fears and anxiety has bought halt in our existence. For some days it seemed that everything has concluded. Shutdown of educational institutions, offices, factories, outlets, gyms...etc has created void in lives of masses. No individuals and vehicles were seen on the roadways . It was sensed out that all mankind was fastened behind the bars in their homes. In this adversity where cases of deaths due to corona virus were rising rapidly, paucity of medical supplies and worries about health of frontlines helpers laid a huge stress on the government. The GDP of country also showed a tremendous declines. It has deep impacts on the lives of people from every part of society.

Who all can think of spending their valuable three to four months at home as couch potatoes and being unemployed but generation, technology left no innovations as unmodernised. Our country has not slipped any stone unturned and transpired with numerous and beneficial opportunities. Being provided with basic amenities Indians has attained normalcy in their lives. Students are attending regular online classes and and similarly onlines meetings are conducted in different firms. Days and months passed Unlocking of India started and different firms and institutions got opened and usual lifestyles are outwitted. Government's steps could be the seeds of tomorrow's tree bearing the fruits of Prosperity, Progress...etc. Therefore, it should be our responsibility to endeavour together accompanied by the initiatives taken by our leaders.

“Saffron being epitome for valiance, white symbolises peace and the green glory imbibed in one nation. Their visions and aspirations triumphed to make us flourish, we salute our leaders in elation”.
